

Stacy Zant is a passionate Jesus lover, devoted wife to Joshua, singer, author, worship leader, stationary designer, mentor, educator, fashion designer and ever growing Bible teacher desiring to encourage others, especially girls to live an anointed life for Jesus!

While she was a student at Spelman College, she served as a Student Orientation Leader, co-founding co-director of the campus ministry, Esther's Circle and upon returning from studying abroad in England, she served in an internship that positioned her to be the founding president of the National Society of leadership and Success at Spelman College, a liberal arts Institution for women. This legacy of leadership continues today.

With the help of an amazing and passionate team of community leaders, youth peer advisors and supportive collaborators, the organization (Girls and Guys Organized for Anointed Living, Inc.) she started as a Christmas Caroling Singspiration at Nursing homes in different cities in 2009 is now a 501(c)(3) non-profit organization providing inspiration, partnerships, access to the arts, and more officially since 2012.

Most recently, she launched the Radiant Pearl planner & stationary line that can be purchased at StacyZant.com along with Bible Journaling resources and kits she designed . She has taught numerous workshops at local Christian Bookstores, in the community, at churches and in schools. Stacy Zant Co-Founded a fashion and arts mentoring organization Seemly Apparel and launched her clothing line Dashing Dresses by Lady Stacy to continue inspiring young ladies to utilize every gift and every God-given asset that makes them beautiful, from the inside out for God's kingdom.

It is her passion to connect and minister to people in every way possible. On Sundays, she enjoys worshipping, mentoring and teaching alongside her husband.

Published Works: "Pearls Of The Earth" and "Radiant Pearl in Progress"
